

My quality of life has improved significantly since the "No Call List" went into effect. Please leave the law the way it is and don't let our private lives be subjected to the rudeness of telephone solicitors. Thank you.